

THE EPITOME OF ELEGANCE

Paradis reveals its delicate and velvety character, hinting at the silky texture that will follow. Then floral notes of jasmine and honeysuckle burst forth, underlined by a layer of soft red berry intensity. Paradoxically, suggestions of spicy notes rise then vanish, leaving an extreme richness on the palate.

A RARE HARMONY

These aromas endlessly stretch and renew themselves, leading to a harmonious depth in the mouth. Honey, floral notes, truffle and mild spices fill the palate in an explosion of flavours. Very soft hints of cardamom and cinnamon, as well as candied fruit give way to fragrant notes recalling dried roses or sweet briar rose jam.

Paradis plays with these fragrant paradoxes, offering an endless consistency to the palate.

A DEEP PERSISTENCE

Gently revealing itself by little touches, Paradis endlessly appears as fresh as a new day. Its subtle texture allows it to gracefully blossom with a deep and fragrant persistence.

Paradis is the fruit of successive blends that combine more than a hundred exceptional eaux-de-vie aged for between 25 and 130 years.
